USJF National Teachers/Instructors and Assistant Instructors Course

Continuing education is a process by which all professional organizations maintain excellence in the field. Likewise the United States Judo Federation, with its long standing tradition of technical excellence, is committed to serving its members with the latest information and procedures adopted from our international judo community.

In a continuing effort to facilitate the process of USJF Teachers Institute - Instructors Certification and the Assistant Instructors certification course, you may do so by participating in this clinic.

The Teachers/Instructors certification course and the Assistant Instructors certification will be informative and useful in your program. The chapters begin with a related story, then information bite size bits of information. We will cover Judo History, Judo Philosophy, Ethics in Judo, Judo Biomechanics, Teaching Tools, Systematized Teaching systems, and Recognizing Tachi-waza and Ne-waza Techniques.

The assistant judo instructor is the Instructor's right hand person. He or she is there to assist the instructor with the conduct of the class. The assistant instructor may present all facets of judo instruction he or she is qualified to instruct, other than the randori session, which requires the immediate supervision of the instructor. For more information, www.usjfteachers.com.

We know the importance of judo information in an ever changing environment and applaud your efforts to accommodate our future judoka.

In demonstrating the commitment of the USJF Teachers Institute Committee, the USJF National Teachers Institute will pay $75 of the fee for each member of a Yudanshakai. In addition, California Judo Inc., Development committee will pay $50 per club member of a CJI registered dojo with the balance being paid by the participant.

The course is LIMITED to 20 people. Upon registration, the Teachers/Instructors manual will be mailed directly to you. Please read and be prepared to discuss each chapter in length. The course does involve an online examination.
