10th Annual USJF National Kata Clinic September 24th-26th '10 Boise, Idaho

Each year judoka from all over the country gather to practice the various judo kata. The United States Judo Federation is proud to sponsor the 10th Annual USJF National Kata Clinic. This year's USJF National Kata Clinic is to be held in the beautiful City of Trees in Boise, Idaho September 24th-26th 2010 and will be hosted by the Intermountain Yudanshakai and Intermountain Black Belt Association.

This years clinic will feature kata instruction from Sensei Eiko Shepherd (7th Dan) of St. Louis, MO., Sensei Noboro Saito (8th Dan) of Clawson, MI., and Sensei Frances Glaze (6th Dan) of Maumee, OH. All clinicians bring a tremendous amount of experience, knowledge, and various national and world recognized credentials and certifications. The kata clinic will include instruction in all 7 forms of judo kata including testing and certification on Sunday September 26th.

Youth ages 10-16 are encouraged to participate and will be given a reduced rate for all three days of kata instruction. Please join us for the 10th Annual USJF National Kata Clinic!
