KEIKO FUKUDA JUDO SCHOLARSHIP

General Information

A Program of the USJF Endowment Trust

What is the Keiko Fukuda Judo Scholarship?

The Keiko Fukuda Judo Scholarship was established by Professor Fukuda to encourage female judoka to continue their formal education and/or to further their training in Judo. Prior scholarships have ranged from $400.00-$500.00. The amount may fluctuate each year based upon endowment income attributable to this scholarship fund. The scholarship grant may be applied towards expenses incurred for either of the following types of activities:

1. Post-secondary education (Scholarship may be used for tuition and books.)
2. Judo education (Scholarship may be used toward expenses for studying Judo abroad, attending clinics, attending Shiai, and competing in National Championships.)

Application should be based upon financial need.

Who is Eligible?

Both Shiai competitors and Kata competitors are eligible. Scholarships will be awarded to Shiai competitors and Kata competitors in alternate years. For example, the scholarship for the year 2006 will be awarded to a Shiai competitor, and in 2007 it will be awarded to a Kata competitor.

Eligibility Requirements

Any female actively engaged in the practice of Judo as a U.S. Judo Federation member for the last four consecutive years may apply. Applicant must have a minimum rank of Shodan and be at least 16 years of age. Applicants must show evidence of financial need.

Award Criteria

1. Outstanding contribution to development of judo (local, yudanshakai, or national)
2. Good shiai record (randori or kata)
3. Good moral character and social conduct
4. Dedicated to judo (regular workout and good attendance)
5. Must be USA citizen
6. Applicants do not need to be pursuing post-secondary education if they plan to use the scholarship to further their Judo education. However, applicants who plan to use the scholarship for post-secondary educational expenses must document that they are carrying at least a B average.

Recommendations for the scholarship must be made through the candidate's yudanshakai. It must be signed by the yudanshakai president and submitted to the Keiko Fukuda Judo Scholarship Committee Chairperson.

Note: No applicant can receive a Keiko Fukuda Judo Scholarship more than twice.
